Our accreditations are a testament to our dedication to excellence, operational readiness and providing unmatched training and services to those who serve and protect.

TRAINING FACILITIES

OUR TRAINING FACILITIES ARE DESIGNED TO REPLICATE REAL-WORLD ENVIRONMENTS, EQUIPPED WITH MODERN INFRASTRUCTURE TO DELIVER HIGH-QUALITY,
IMMERSIVE AND EFFECTIVE TRAINING EXPERIENCES.

Infrastructure is not the product. The formed operator is. Our facilities exist to serve that outcome — not to impress, but to test.

MOBILE TRAINING TEAM: MTT

Formation Delivered to Your Terrain | Your Threat | Your Force

Formation is not a facility — it is a standard. The UNIT 21 GROUP Mobile Training Team exists because the gap between trained and formed does not respect geography. When a force, unit, or security team cannot come to us, we bring the same formation standard to them — built around their terrain, their threat environment, and their specific operational gaps.

Every MTT deployment begins with an honest assessment: where is this force's formation gap? The answer determines the program. Our instructors — who are also the people who conduct protective operations and advise military commands — do not deliver a standard syllabus. They identify what the situation actually requires and build the formation program around that.

Training in familiar terrain accelerates formation — because the environment the student will actually operate in is where the gap between knowledge and capability is most honestly exposed. The MTT does not bring a course to your location. It brings the formation process to where your people will need to perform.

CLIENTELE

CONFIDENTIALITY & CLIENT PRIVACY

A significant portion of UNIT 21 GROUP engagements are conducted under confidentiality agreements, non-disclosure agreements (NDAs), and operational security requirements. As a result, details relating to many of our clients, projects, and assignments are not publicly disclosed.

Operational security is not a policy preference — it is a formation principle. The same discipline we build into our students governs how we handle every client relationship, every engagement, and every piece of information entrusted to us.

SPECIAL OPERATIONS

SPECIAL OPERATIONS

Name: UNIT 21 GROUP Private Military/Security Company (PMC/PSC)

Founded: 2019

Headquarters: Africa/Serbia/Greece/Laos/Thailand/Mexico/India

Motto: "Protecting Beyond Limits"

UNIT 21 GROUP PM/SC is a private military/security contractor specializing in high-intensity operations, offering a range of military services including direct combat, tactical training, security for high-value assets, and strategic advisory roles. The company operates in hostile, unstable environments where state militaries and local forces may be insufficient or unavailable. It often provides operational support in situations that require a specialized, discrete presence.

KEY SPECIALIZATIONS:

- Combat Operations
- Personal Security
- Intelligence & Reconnaissance
- Military Training
- Logistics & Supply Chain

OPERATIONAL REGIONS:

UNIT 21 GROUP PM/SC operates in some of the world's most unstable regions, including parts of Africa, the Middle East, and South America. UNIT 21 GROUP often engages in high-stakes missions where its actions are necessary to maintain order, secure assets, or protect national interests.

FIREARMS

An operator who must think about the weapon is not thinking about the threat. Firearms formation makes weapon handling automatic, freeing the mind for the decisions that matter.

Every program in UNIT 21 GROUP firearms curriculum is designed to turn conscious execution into automatic competence—because in high-risk environments, fraction of a second matter.

URABN WARFARE

Urban environments leave no margin for error. Formation develops operators who can make the right decisions when the situation no longer fits the procedure.

Our urban warfare curriculum progresses from individual room clearance to multi-team hostage rescue, because formation in complex environments demands progression, not repetition.

MOBILITY, SECURITY, CONTROL.
MISSION SUCCESS.

Vehicle operations place the operator in a restricted, mobile, and high-speed threat environment where the gap between trained reflexes and formed decision-making is measured in metres and seconds.

Every UNIT 21 GROUP vehicular program is built to form operators who think in that environment — not just execute drills within it.

TACTICS

TACTICS

Tactical formation is the difference between following a procedure and solving a problem. Procedures fail when situations change. Formed operators adapt, because the thinking was built —not just the drill.

UNIT 21 GROUP tactical programs progress from situational awareness to mission execution, because tactical formation is built through decisions made under pressure.

EXPLOSIVE ORDNANCE

Explosive ordnance training builds operators who can identify, assess, and respond to explosive threats without hesitation. Formation makes threat recognition fast, accurate, and automatic.

In an EOD environment, a single wrong assessment can be fatal. Formation is built around that reality.

AMPHIBIOUS

AMPHIBIOUS OPERATIONS

FROM THE SEA. ONTO THE SHORE.
MISSION SUCCESS.

Amphibious Operations conduct sustained offensive, defensive, and stability operations across the full spectrum of military operations. We project power. We seize ground. We achieve the objective.

MISSION FOCUS

Establish logistics. Maintain the fight. Enable follow-on operations.

Amphibious operations demand clarity across the transition from sea to shore. Formation ensures operators maintain that clarity when it matters most.

Amphibious techniques enhances mobility, operational flexibility, and mission effectiveness across coastal and riverine environments.

DRONE & COUNTER-DRONE

DOMINATE THE SKIES. PROTECT THE MISSION.

Drones provide unmatched situational awareness, precision effects, and operational reach. Counter-Drone capabilities deny the enemy the same advantage. Control the airspace. Protect the force. Ensure mission success.

DRONE OPERATIONS

Operate and employ drones for ISR, targeting, and force protection.

INTELLIGENCE & SURVEILLANCE

Gain real-time awareness. Detect threats. Track targets. Share actionable data.

PRECISION & EFFECTS

Execute precision strikes. Assess battle damage. Minimize collateral risk.

DETECT, IDENTIFY & NEUTRALIZE HOSTILE DRONES

Detect, identify and neutralize hostile drones to ensure force protection.

COUNTER-DRONE OPERATIONS

Defeat enemy drones with jamming.

INTEGRATE & ADAPT

Integrate into joint operations. Adapt to evolving threats. Stay ahead.

The threat environment has changed. Operators without drone and counter-drone formation carry a capability gap that conventional skills alone cannot close.

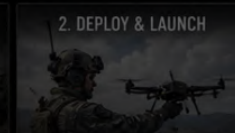

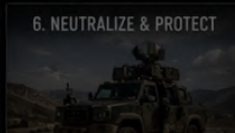

One of the most consistent gaps we observed was technology integration. Operators were applying yesterday's awareness to today's threat environment.

INSTRUCTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

INSTRUCTOR DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

BUILD EXPERTS. DEVELOP LEADERS. MULTIPLY FORCE EFFECTIVENESS.

The Instructor Development Program (IDP) creates world-class instructors who set the standard, develop others, and sustain readiness across the force.

TRAIN TO TEACH
Master adult learning principles, lesson design, and instructional techniques.

LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Sustain readiness across the force.

ADULT LEARNING PRINCIPLES

- Relevant
- Practical
- Experiential
- Engaging
- Outcome Focused

The most dangerous multiplier of the trained-not-formed problem is an instructor who was trained but not formed themselves. The UNIT 21 GROUP Instructor Development Program exists for one reason: to ensure that everyone who teaches under the UNIT 21 GROUP standard has been built by it and can build it in others.

An instructor is not someone who has mastered a skill, but someone who can identify and close the gap in others. That capability is itself a formation outcome.
